

STUDENT AFFAIRS

Leadership &
Student Involvement

Graduate Assistant for Leadership and Student Involvement – Leadership & Experiential Learning

OVERVIEW

Our Mission

TCU Leadership & Student Involvement (LSI) maximizes students' potential through individual and community development. LSI houses the Leadership & Experiential Learning, TCU Student Organizations, Office for Community Engagement, Student Activities, and University Unions. Leadership & Experiential Learning works alongside student to help them discover who they are by exploring their values, interests, and skills through leadership development and community engagement.

Graduate Assistants in Leadership & Experiential Learning will have the opportunity to participate in ongoing LSI staff activities, decisions, and professional development. LSI functional areas include first year experience, student activities, university unions, student government association, student organizations, leadership, community engagement, experiential learning, and service learning.

RESPONSIBILITIES / OPPORTUNITIES

Graduate Assistants will assist in the coordination, implementation, and assessment of student development programs consistent with the mission and established learning outcomes of TCU, Student Affairs, and Leadership & Student Involvement. Primary responsibilities include:

- Assist in the coordination, implementation, and assessment of Lead NOW (Network of Women), a first-year women's leadership organization.
- Advise and assist in the leadership development of Lead NOW student leaders and participants through recruiting, training, and support.
- Assist with Leadership & Experiential Learning programs including TCU Day of Service, Celebration of University Leadership, and Road Frogs.
- Collaborate with Leadership & Student Involvement professional staff members to guide and develop undergraduate student leaders.
- Assist programmers in all phases of program assessment and evaluation.
- Opportunity to assist with presentations and trainings related to leadership development and community engagement.
- Other duties as assigned.